

What is The South Cleveland Heart Fund?

Registered Charity
Number 1051565

The South Cleveland Heart Fund was first set up in February 1995 to raise money to support the Cardiothoracic Unit South Cleveland Hospital in its work and research.

All committee members are voluntary and all monies raised are used to purchase items and equipment that will benefit patients admitted to the Cardiothoracic Unit

RAISING MONEY FOR LOCAL PEOPLE”

HOW DO WE RAISE FUNDS?

The South Cleveland Heart Fund stall is open every Tuesday from 1 pm at South Cleveland Hospital (corridor leading to Ward 1)
Also taken to local shows and fetes

The stall sells a wide range of goods including:

South Cleveland Heart Fund badges
sweatshirts, T-shirts, and polo shirts all embroidered with the South Cleveland Heart Fund logo.
fancy goods & bric-a-brac

We organise social fund-raising events:-

Sponsored Events

Charity Evenings

Coffee Mornings

Garden Parties

Christmas/Autumn Fair

HOW CAN YOU HELP?

You may like to make a donation no matter how small, perhaps in the memory of a loved one

sign a deed of covenant
(the amount will be increased as we can reclaim your tax)

(please see overleaf for details)

Could you organise a fund-raising event to raise money in aid of the South Cleveland Heart Fund

Come along to our Charity Events
keep a look-out in the local press
for forthcoming events

We are always in need of bric-a-brac for the stall and tombola/raffle prizes for our fund raising events.
